Protecting Your Personal Information

At FamilyLife (a division of Power to Change Ministries), we recognize that your privacy is important. When you donate to us, we collect personal information from you. This information is used for the purposes of having an accurate record of your involvement, ensuring appropriate use of your giving, contacting you to acknowledge your gifts, sending receipts, informing you about ourselves or offering you further opportunities to partner with us, and as required or permitted by law. We endeavor to have a life long relationship with our supporters and therefore may retain any personal information you provide unless otherwise instructed. Employees, volunteers and/or authorized representatives of Power to Change Ministries who are responsible for functions relevant to the purposes identified above, and other persons authorized by law, have access to the personal information contained in your file. By providing us with your personal information you consent to our collecting, using and disclosing your personal information, including that previously collected, for the purposes described. We do not sell or market your personal information to third parties. If you wish to decline or withdraw consent to your personal information being collected, used and disclosed for the purposes described above, please contact our Development Team by calling 1.800.563.1106 or by emailing donorprivacy@crusade.org or write to us at the address listed below. However, in some circumstances, legal requirements may prevent you from withholding or withdrawing consent. If you would like more details about our privacy policy, or if you have questions or comments, please contact our Privacy Officer at privacyofficer@crusade.org or by mail at the following address: Privacy Officer, Power to Change Ministries, P.O. Box 300, BC V6C 2X3.
